

God continually calls us higher—to draw nearer to Him, renew our minds through His Word, and mature in our walk with Him.

Aliyah to Jesus

The ultimate purpose is not only the Jewish people's physical return to Israel, but also their spiritual awakening to Jesus as Messiah.

Therefore, our prayer becomes:

“Call them up to Jesus.”

This may be understood as a spiritual aliyah—a divinely guided journey of:

- Having their eyes opened to Jesus
- Recognizing the One who was pierced
- Receiving salvation through Messiah
- Growing in faith and spiritual maturity
- Becoming witnesses who share the good news with others

Pray For Israel and the Jewish people

- Open their eyes to Jesus.
- Reveal Yeshua as Messiah.
- Fulfill Your covenant.
- Gather those You are calling home.
- Protect Jewish communities.
- Bring salvation before future prophetic events unfold.

Pray For Muslims

- Reveal Jesus in dreams and visions.
- Break the power of deception.
- Bring entire families to faith.
- Protect converts.
- Raise up Muslim-background evangelists.
- Turn hostility toward Israel into encounters with Jesus.

Aliyah

The Meaning of Aliyah (Ah-Lee-Yah) עֲלִיָּה

Aliyah means “to go up” or “to ascend.”

The term may refer to:

1. Jewish people immigrating or returning to Israel.
2. Going up to read from the Torah in a synagogue.
3. Spiritual elevation—drawing nearer to God.

Aliyah as a Supernatural Call

Aliyah is more than a political immigration or personal preference.

The central thought is:

- Jewish people may have natural reasons for moving.
- Beneath those reasons, God may be creating a supernatural pull.
- Some people may not fully understand why they feel they must return.
- The Church can pray for that divine call to become stronger and clearer.
- God is fulfilling His prophetic promises to regather Israel.

God is saying to the Jewish people, “Come home. Come back to Israel.”

Prophetic Scriptures

- Jeremiah 31: God gathers Israel with everlasting love.
- Ezekiel 11:17: God gathers and gives them the land.
- Isaiah 49: Nations assist in the return.
- Zechariah 8: God brings His people from east and west.
- Isaiah 61: Ruins are rebuilt and shame becomes double honor.
- Romans 11: All Israel will be saved.

Aliyah in Genesis

The idea of aliyah—“going up” or “ascending”—can be seen in Genesis when Joseph and his family went up from Egypt to bury Jacob in the Promised Land, according to Jacob’s request (Genesis 50:5–7).

This account connects aliyah with:

- Returning to the land of the fathers
- Honoring covenant promises
- Recognizing the spiritual significance of the land
- Going up to the place God had appointed

Jewish teaching helps explain why traveling to Israel is traditionally described as “going up.” This does not necessarily refer to physical elevation, but to Israel’s unique spiritual significance within God’s covenant purposes.

This understanding of spiritual ascent includes:

- Going to Israel is described as “going up.”
- Going up to read from the Torah is regarded as a spiritual honor.
- Prayer draws us into a deeper awareness of God’s presence.
- Reading and meditating on God’s Word renews and elevates our thinking.

Application for Believers

We also “go up” spiritually as we:

- Draw near to God in prayer.
- Offer prayers that ascend before Him.
- Enter His courts with praise.
- Allow His Word to renew our minds.
- Respond to His call to greater spiritual maturity.—
